INFORMATION WANTED

On 07-06-77, the above unidentified victim was located at the rear of A&H Paint Company, 13124 Figueroa Street, Carson. She was wearing a one-piece red jump suit with red shoulder straps that were criss-crossed in the front. She was also wearing a white Gabardine waist jacket and a blue open-toed wedge with a Rafia sole in her right foot, tied around the ankle by a single white shoelace. Her left shoe was missing. She wore a 14-inch long turquoise Indian-styel necklace made of beads of silver tubes on thread with a single turquoise nugget.

The victim was estimated to be 20 years of age. She had an old 1-inch scar on her chin. The image above shows what the victim may have looked like in life. Some elements, such as hairstyle, are the artist's estimations to complete the image and should not be used as significant markers for identification.
